—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. DAWSON, Sr., the former 78 and the latter 66, started on their biennial visit to their children in Missouri, Wednesday. Mr. J. E. Thompson and Miss Lizzie Thompson accompanied them.
—These are the names of the Somerset boys who "waxed" ours on their ball grounds: W. A. Morrow, J. M. Richardson, W. Tumlinson, John Bash, W. Thomas, W. Vickery, T. Scott, S. Watson, Thos. Morrow, J. N. Griffith, J. Claunch, H. Ruel, R. C. Hicks.

LOCAL MATTERS.

FRESH salt at W. H. Higgins'.
WAYNE county has a new postoffice, Vagaburg.
"BLAINE'S 20 Years in Congress" for sale by R. C. Hicks, Somerset. Agents wanted to canvass Lincoln county, to whom I will give 30 per cent profit on sales.
PLEASE don't forget your account was due July 1st. If you haven't the money come and give us your note; we are anxious to settle up our old books. Bright & Curran.
HARRY WEBBER's band and orchestra are composed of first-class musicians and in addition to the grand parade and orchestral duties, they will favor the citizens of Stanford with an open air concert, in which among other selections will be given a zitherphone solo, also tuba solo, which are master pieces and should be heard by all. Next Monday night.
"Howdy Sis."—Col. T. Z. Morrow told a Cincinnati newspaper reporter that he believed Blaine and Logan would carry Kentucky, "because Blaine once lived here and Logan's dashing, manly qualities render him dear to the impulsive, aggressive Kentuckians." Col. Morrow is evidently a very sanguine man. He said he would beat Gov. Knott, but he got left by about 45,000 majority.
RUNAWAY.—Mrs. Dock Helm and son Earnest, and Miss Lillie Foster came near being killed by their horse running away Wednesday. They had been to town and returning in a rockaway the animal became frightened and running off threw the occupants of the vehicle out, tore it all to pieces and did not stop running till he got back home. Mr. Helm went at once in search of the party and found them all badly bruised, but fortunately not very seriously.

BROTHER BOOLE'S majority is 148. Pretty good for the parson.
FRESH line of fancy candles, cakes, etc., at S. S. Myers & Co's.
For sale cheap—25,000 pounds of low grade flour. Bright & Curran.
THREE Moline Sulky Plows and one Fast & Brady Sulky Plow for sale at less than cost to close out. Geo. D. Wearen.
GOLDEN PATENT FLOUR is giving splendid satisfaction. Use it if you want the best bread. Sold only by T. R. Walton.
THE Chesapeake and Ohio railway's Louisville ticket office was removed to 225 Fourth Avenue on the 5th, where W. E. Arnold, Passenger agent and W. J. Berg are ready to serve their friends.
HIRAN BROWN, who has been in jail here for five months, was taken to Knox county Wednesday for trial for robbery. The sheriff and two great big guards took him, when one man could have done so, shackled and tied as he was.
HARRY WEBBER, with first class company and full brass band and orchestra will present that beautiful melodrama, "The Lancashire Lass," at the Opera House, Stanford, Monday evening, August 11. Admission 75 and 50 cents.
Owing to the carelessness of the individual who imposes the forms, our election and court articles in Tuesday's issue got mixed in such a manner as to make both ridiculous. It is exceedingly vexatious but such things will occasionally happen even in the best regulated offices.
OUR citizens owe Harry Webber and Company a big house Monday night for their work here on the night of the fire. They played here that night and when the fire broke out every man of them responded to the call and worked like Trojans. One good turn deserves another and we now have a chance to show our appreciation of their efforts.
On election day, Henson Fields was arrested here for disturbing the peace and having concealed on his person a pistol. He was taken before Judge Carson, who at his suggestion turned him over to Constable Martin, who promised to deliver him for trial next day. He did not do so nor has he done so since. This is quite a serious matter and unless Mr. Martin can show some mighty good reason, he will in all probability, be indicted by the next Grand Jury.
We will have no quarrel with our good friend, Dr. Alcorn, the Hustonville correspondent of the Advocate, but since he has, like another animal we might name, kicked without being spurred, we must say to him, and the secretary will not deny it, that we were never asked to bid on anything but the catalogue of the Fair, which he claims was taken as the basis of the other work. This in itself was unfair, as all offices will do several jobs at a less rate than for one. The Advocate had to cut to get the work and when it goes at that kind of business we can give it two in the game and beat it, though we prefer to do a legitimate business. But let it all pass. We are not a fig for the work, except so far as it shows the animus of certain men toward Stanford institutions. We will not discuss the other statements made by the doctor, further than to state that we fear his conscience is getting elastic when he can say without wincing that Hustonville is under no obligations to Stanford, that all favors have been paid for and accounts stand square.
INCREASE OF VALUATION.—At last our county clerk has received from the Auditor a statement of the action of the State Board of Equalization concerning the tax valuations in this county. It increases the valuation of real estate as made by the assessor 16 per cent, and that of personal property 2 per cent. The effect of this will be to add to the aggregate valuation of taxable property in the county a little over half a million dollars. The clerk, Mr. Blain, and deputy sheriff, Carpenter, are now busily engaged in making the necessary calculations and alterations of the tax book to enable the sheriff to determine the exact amount of each person's taxes before proceeding to collect. This is a very tedious and laborious task which it will require several days' work to complete and for which these officers will get no compensation whatever. Boyle county had 17 per cent added to her lands and 8 per cent to her personalty. There will be some equalizing and we doubt if the arrangement is fair, since there are lands in this county especially, better worth $100 per acre than some others are 50 cents.
COURIER JOURNALISTS AT WAR.—Glancing over the register of the Myers House yesterday the name of Danl. E. O'Sullivan caught our eye and on inquiring we learned that that young gentleman had arrived at 11:30 and left on the 2:30 A. M. train. It looked singular that a man who had been staying at Crab Orchard Springs should come away down here to take the train, so we pursued our inquiries further and learned that he and Mr. John A. Haldeman had had a difficulty in which O'Sullivan had snatched a pistol at him. The trouble seems to have grown out of some spirited and personal watering place correspondence in which the two were the writers. They had had a previous quarrel about the matter in which Haldeman soundly abused O'Sullivan. When they met a second time the war of words was resumed and O'Sullivan, who had in the mean time armed himself, drew his pistol but as fortune would have it, it failed to go off. He was hustled off by his friends and advised to come here and take the train so as to avoid further trouble. We do not know which of the gentlemen was to blame, but we are sure that both regret that they allowed so small a matter to climax so seriously.

PATENT and straight flour, meal, bacon, and lard can always be found at S. S. Myers & Co's.
Our colored people with their usual enterprise will have a fair again this year. It will be at the old fair grounds on the Danville pike on the 29th and 30th of this month.
THE Hustonville Fair directors did not rent the privilege of their grounds to James Ditty for gambling purposes, but to sell soap and as soon as they discovered his trick they promptly refunded the amount he had paid them.
WILLIE, the little son of Judge Stephen Burch, who underwent the painful operation mentioned in our last issue is getting along remarkably well. In this connection it is proper to say that our reporter was mistaken in his information. Dr. Carpenter performed the operation assisted by Drs. Bronaugh, Helm and Bailou.
Two years ago the Somerset Club came up here to play our club and were so badly beaten that they went home and nothing was heard of them till a few days ago, when they again challenged our boys. They had evidently been putting in their spare time learning how to play and have succeeded in being able to present a very fair game. The contest came up Tuesday evening when they beat the Stanfords 22 to 13 and again Wednesday when they were again victorious, 38 to 21. In behalf of our boys it may truthfully be said that they have no organization and rarely ever play unless challenged and then they pick up a nine. The visitors were entertained with a nice little hop at the opera house during their stay and the boys store in other ways to make them have a good time.
THE poll books were opened yesterday and examined, after which County Clerk Blain gave us the following official statement: Stanford gave J. N. Mcnefee for sheriff 520 votes; Rev. John A. Boole for superintendent 206; J. M. Phillips 426; Dan Miller for constable 308 and John T. O'Hair 331. Crab Orchard, Mcnefee 180; Bogle 100; Phillips 79; Walnut Flat 51; Bogle 7, Phillips 43; Highland, Mcnefee 100; Bogle 48, Phillips 51; Waynesburg, Mcnefee 141, Bogle 79, Phillips 50; Turnersville, Mcnefee 99, Bogle 76, Phillips 20; Hustonville Mcnefee 276, Bogle 319, Phillips 9, making Mcnefee's vote 1,377; Bogle's 835 and Phillips' 687, a majority for Bogle for County Superintendent of Public Schools 148. In the Crab Orchard precinct J. F. Foley was elected constable by 3 majority; at Highland E. M. Denson, and at Walnut Flat J. T. Benjamin were elected constables without opposition and Harry Elbertson at Waynesburg by 17 majority. In the Hustonville precinct, Mr. L. B. Adams was elected justice of the peace without opposition.
MARRIAGES.
—It will surprise many of our friends here to learn that Miss Eva N. Cooke, the accomplished and beloved music teacher at the Female College for two years, was married at her home in Somerville, Tenn., a few days ago, to the Rev. Mr. Jany, rector of the Episcopal parish of that place. By her gentleness of manner and loveliness of disposition, Miss Eva made many friends here, who send congratulations and good wishes for her happiness. The preacher and the professor will probably meet theirs when the shock of this announcement in a manner wears off.
RELIGIOUS.
—After preaching at Stanford at 11 A. M. Sunday, Dr. Cox will go to Crab Orchard and preach at the Christian church there at 4 P. M.
—Rev. H. C. Morrison will preach his farewell sermon on the 11th Sunday morning and at night Revs. Bruce and McElroy will hold union service with him. Mr. Morrison has decided to enter the theological department of Vanderbilt University, where he will spend two years in study. He has made a most excellent pastor and the Church gives him up reluctantly.
LAND, STOCK AND CROP.
—Best wheat is worth 84¢ in Cincinnati.
—B. Mattingly is paying 70 to 73 cents for wheat and 80 cents for corn.
—The Lexington Gazette reports a sale of 100 barrels of new corn at $4 per barrel.
—J. B. Wilgus, of Fayette, sold 90 head of fat cattle, averaging 1,600, to Hiram Wilkerson, of Covington, at $6 per cow.
—John Bright sold to R. G. Gover 7 head of cattle for 15th of September delivery at 5 cents and took in exchange 90 wethers at 3 cents.
—R. R. & E. P. Woods sold to a Michigan party a yearling short-horn for $250 and J. M. Fisher sold to same party a bull calf for $250.
—G. L. Douglas, of Fayette county, raised 525 bushels of wheat on 12 measured acres of land, which is an average of 43½ bushels per acre.
—Samuel McDowell, living near Nicholasville, found one of his valuable brood mares dead in the pasture and upon examination it was found that somebody had cut her throat, from which she bled to death.
—Wyatt Sandidge took the premium at the Danville fair on an Arabian Mare, a yearling; S. H. Baughman & Son on a Riesen colt; F. F. Sandidge on a gelding and mare; G. A. Lacey on a 2 year-old jack and P. P. Sandidge on a combined mare.
—Cattle in Cincinnati are steady with good demand for the better class. Hogs are firm and lambs moderately active at these figures:
CATTLE.
Common to medium.....$2.00 to $4.50
Good to extra butchers.....4.00 to $5.50
Common to choice shipper.....2.25 to $3.50
Stockers and feeders.....4.00 to $5.25
HOGS.
Selected butchers and heavy shippers.....$5.75 to $6.35
Fair to good packers.....5.25 to $5.55
Fair to good light.....5.25 to $5.30
Common.....4.50 to $5.25
SHEEP.
Common to fair.....$2.75 to $3.00
Good to extra.....3.75 to $4.75
Lamb—Common to choice.....4.00 to $5.75

CRAB ORCHARD, LINCOLN COUNTY.
—Born to the wife of A. W. Dillion, on the 4th inst., a girl.
—The ladies of Crab Orchard and vicinity presented Elder J. G. Livingston with a beautiful satin and silk quilt of the crazy pattern, for which he extends to each of the ladies his profoundest thanks and makes his politest bow.
—Scott Farris rented the second story of the Buchanan building on Stanford street for a residence for which he paid $7 per month. Dr. Doores is adding much to the appearance of his property by replacing his old yard fence with a splendid new picket. Several others could very profitably follow his example.
—Miss Sallie Fish and Jennie Kennedy are attending the Danville fair this week. Miss Mollie Johnston, of Lancaster, is visiting Lola Bowen at the Stevens House. Eq. W. M. Garrett, who has been quite low for two weeks, is improving. There are several cases of cholera morbus and flux in town and vicinity. Mrs. W. A. Carson is very low of fever. Miss Maggie Harris of Stanford, is visiting Miss Pauline Hardin instead of Miss Maggie Elbert as reported in your personals last issue.
—The election here last Monday was one of the quietest we ever witnessed, the day passing off without a single row and but very little drunkenness. The principal interest was centered in the local races for marshal and constable. In the race for constable there were five contestants, John Foley, Joe Jones, Thomas Pettus, Peter Chandler and John Chappel; the race lay between Foley and Pettus from the beginning and it was "rip and tuck" during the whole day, Foley carrying off the honors at last by 3 votes. In the race for marshal W. T. Saunders and Thos. Holman were the contestants. Saunders, who had an uncle running in Boyle county for sheriff, was in Danville that day, but his interest did not suffer at home in the hands of his friends and when the polls closed he was victorious by 16 votes.
The Lancashire Lass.
The above is the title of the beautiful melodrama, in which Mr. Webber will be presented to a Stanford audience, appearing in the character of the rough though always ready "Party by the name of Johnson," in which character he wins the applause of his audience at every representation. The story is that of two lovers, with a villain doing his best to break off the attachment, but who is balked just at the right time by a "Party by the name of Johnson." Our people will remember Mr. Webber's capital impersonation of Nicholas Nip in the comedy of "Nip & Tuck" and will, we feel sure, greet him with a crowded house. Reserved seats will be sold at McRoberts & Stagg's.
